

6.1.1 The governance and leadership is in accordance with the vision and mission of the institution and it is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participation in institutional governance. Write a description in a maximum of 500 words.

Response: Vision of GJIMT

To be an Institute of Excellence providing beyond-the-classroom stimulating experiences that are holistic and responsive to the current needs of the Global Society.

Mission

- Impart holistic management and technical education.
- Nurture and develop human resources of global standards.
- Serve the industry and society productively.
- Inculcating sense of honesty, morality, transparency, and integrity

Core Values

- Dignity – Instilling self-confidence and respect for national and global cultural norms
- Discipline – Sustaining effective discipline to become self-reliant, respectful, and self-controlled.
- Integrity – Inculcating sense of honesty, morality, transparency & integrity
- Measured Objectives – Giving direction and focus to effort.
- All Around Growth – Growing in terms of intellectual, emotional, social, and Physical well-being.

Governance Structure

- Leadership: The governance of the Institute is led by esteemed individuals aligned with the institution's vision and mission. They oversee the strategic direction and ensure adherence to established policies.
- Shared Leadership and Participative Decision-Making: The institute fosters a culture of shared leadership and participative decision-making, wherein faculty members and staff are actively involved in the decision-making process. This approach promotes transparency, inclusivity, and collective responsibility.

- Decentralized Operations: The governance structure embraces decentralization, enabling effective delegation of authorities and responsibilities. This decentralized model facilitates swift decision-making and ensures responsiveness to evolving needs and challenges.
- Organizational Structure: The Institute operates within a systematic organizational structure delineating clear job responsibilities and reporting lines. This structure enhances accountability and efficiency across various verticals and departments.

The institution has established various committees and cells to address specific aspects of governance, administration, and student welfare. These include:

- Examination Cell
- Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)
- Sexual Harassment Cell
- Internal Complaint Committee
- SC/ST Committee
- Research & Resource Development Cell (RDC)
- Anti-Ragging Cell
- Alumni Association
- Equal opportunity Cell
- Training and Placement Cell
- Student Grievance Redressal Cell
- Career Development Cell

Each of these committees and cells operates under the guidance of independent heads who make decisions aligned with the institute's policies and regulatory requirements.
